

LOGAN JENKINS

SENIOR WEB DEVELOPER

LOGAN@LOGANJENKINS.COM

Howdy

I'm Logan. I've built performant, responsive, accessible sites for more than 15 years. I've been the sole developer for a company, and I've worked with large teams of devs across the globe. I have management experience, and can be the lead on a project, or I can be given work and trusted to complete tasks on my own. I'm great at jumping into a repo and figuring out how a codebase ticks. I've got rock-solid JS fundamentals, and I know the industry-standard frameworks as well. I'm detail oriented, good at estimates, and personable. I'm the kinda dev you can show off to your clients. I get excited about ADA and helping sites meet WCAG AA compliance.
